The Five Pillars of Islam

The first pillar
'Shahadah'

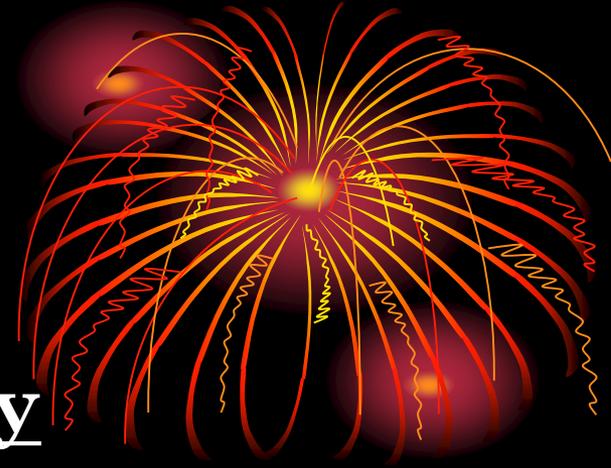

The declaration of faith.

Believing and saying the words...

*'There is no god except Allah,
Muhammad is the messenger of Allah'*

The second pillar 'Salah'

Praying everyday

A Muslim may pray at anytime of the day, but salah is the five set times during the day that they must pray. These prayers are said in Arabic. Muslims kneel on a special mat and use a compass so that they can pray in the direction of their holy city, Makkah. Muslims must wash carefully and cover their heads before they pray

The third pillar 'Zakah'

Donating money

Muslims are expected to give away money to charity. This may go towards building a new hospital, or to help the poor and needy. This is an offering to Allah.

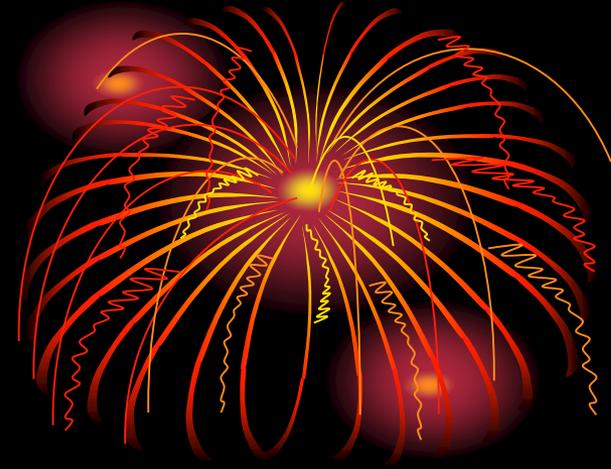

The fourth pillar
'Sawm'

Fasting during Ramadan.

The month of Ramadan is the time when Muslims try their best to live better lives and to read the Qur'an regularly. During Ramadan Muslims fast during the daylight hours.

The fifth pillar
'Hajj'

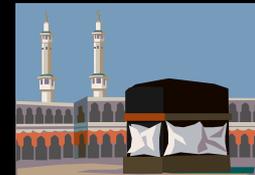

Going on a pilgrimage

Muslims must visit the holy city of Makkah, in Arabia, at least once in their lifetime.

The 5 Pillars of Islam

- Shahadah (Creed) To testify that Allah alone is worthy of worship and Muhammad (peace be upon Him) is His final Messenger
- Salaah (Prayer) Muslims pray 5 times a day daily
- Sawm (Fasting) Muslims fast for 29/30 days and have nothing to eat between sunrise & sunset
- Zakaah (Alms giving) Muslims are supposed to give a fixed proportion of their savings (2.5%) for endeavours such as helping the poor. In this way, their wealth is “made pure”
- Hajj (Pilgrimage) Muslims make a visit to the House of Allah in Makkah, once in a life time if one can afford in doing so
